

Terms of Reference

1. Purpose of the Consultancy

Support the ICD-11 Revision – Joint Linearization for Mortality and Morbidity Statistics (JLMMS), in editing and preparation of subclassifications (extension codes) of ICD-11, and support for improvements of user guidance of ICD-11.

2. Background

The revision of ICD-11 has been progressing in different phases, since 2007. In this last phase, ICD-11 is prepared in a version for planning of implementation for release in June 2018. Additional work is necessary to finalize work on different components of ICD-11, including some subclassifications.

3. Work to be performed

Output 1: Provide editorial and classification support to the ongoing ICD development process. This includes organization of content and authoring on an online platform, with special attention to the additional subclassifications.

Activity 1.1: Updated ICD-11.

4. Timelines

Start date: 22/04/2018

End date: 22/06/2018

5. Work effort

1,5	Months (Please note that one month = 20 days)	<input type="checkbox"/> And <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Or	30	Days
-----	---	--	----	-------------

Corresponds to a Full-Time Equivalent of: 75 %

(100% equals 40 hours a week – 4 weeks a month)

6. Specific requirements

- Qualifications required:

Education in health related subject

- Experience required:

Some experience in medical classification;

Basic knowledge of anatomy, medical terminology, or some understanding of chemicals and medicaments.

- Skills / Technical skills and knowledge:

Understanding of online platforms

Experience in work with iCAT (ICD-11 authoring) would be an asset

Knowledge of standard office software and ability to prepare presentations

- Language requirements:

Good knowledge of English in Read - Write - Speak

7. Place of assignment

The consultant can perform the assignment from home, provided the internet bandwidth supports videoconferencing. Possible travel is not included in this agreement.